

NATALIIA KUSHNIR

Candidate of Economic Science specializing in 08.00.05 - Advancing Productive Forces and Regional Economies. Associate Professor at the Department of International Economics at the Faculty of International Economics at Uzhhorod National University, she supports the "International Economic Reports" course. Natalia participated in an international internship program in the United States (Open World) in 2012.

Dr. Kushnir serves as an editorial board member for the Scientific Bulletin of Uzhhorod National University within the series dedicated to "International Economic Relations and the World Economy." Additionally, she holds an All-Ukrainian Association of International Economists membership.

Field of scientific interests: international and regional economic integration, international labor migration, international investment activity, international monetary and financial organizations, cross-border and interregional cooperation.

Author of more than 70 scientific, educational, and methodological works.

OLENA ZAYATS

Doctor of Economic Science specializing in 08.00.02 - World Economy and International Economic Relations, earned her doctoral degree from Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. Professor at the Department of International Economic Relations at Uzhhorod National University.

Dr. Zayats has completed internships in the United States, the United Kingdom, Latvia, Slovakia, and Poland. She has a multifaceted career encompassing teaching, research, and entrepreneurial endeavors.

Dr. Zayats is a member of the editorial boards for three specialized Ukrainian publications in category B. She is also a member of the All-Ukrainian Association of International Economists.

She holds the position of the Head of the Specialized Academic Council responsible for overseeing dissertations in specialty 292 - International Economic Relations.

Field of scientific interests: global competitiveness of countries, competitive force of international integration associations, economic interdependence of member countries of international integration associations, transformation of the global digital market, electronic trade in the international business system.

Author of more than 100 scientific, educational, and methodological works.

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC RELATIONS

NATALIIA KUSHNIR OLENA ZAYATS